In the spirit of meaningful connection and leading with purpose, we're delighted to share this book with you. "Influenced from Above: Where Faith and Influence Meet" — written by Brian Ahearn, one of our frequent guests on The Above Board Podcast — offers a thoughtful look at how our values, choices, and everyday interactions shape the influence we have on others.

We hope this book encourages reflection, inspires growth, and reminds you of the power of intentional influence in every area of life.

If you enjoy the read, we'd love for you to consider leaving a review to support Brian and help others discover the book as well.
